

Below is a list of past recipients of the ANZSHM conference grants offered to higher degree research students

2007 conference: Medicine in Context, Canberra, ACT
Student's name	University	Conference paper title
Caroline Clark	University of Melbourne	Treating disease and saving souls: a case study in early medical treatment for alcoholism in a charitable context
Deborah Dunsford	University of Auckland	'Untouchable no more?' the stigma of tuberculosis in post-war New Zealand
Katrina Ford	University of Auckland	The Politician and the Microbe: bacteriology and political discourse in New Zealand c. 1900-1914
Claire Gooder	University of Auckland	Medicine and Community: sex education in 1940s New Zealand
Deborah Jowitt	University of Auckland	Concern verging on panic: the community funded campaign to control hepatitis B in New Zealand, 1982-85
Meg Parsons	University of Sydney	Creating a hygienic reserve: Cherbourg Aboriginal Settlement 1930-1950
Neale, Kerry	Australian National University	Fractured faces, fractured lives: facially disfigured soldiers of the Great War, 1914-18

2009 conference: Health and History at the Frontier, Perth, WA
Student's name	University	Conference paper title
Joanne Richdale	University of Auckland	Doctors and the Making of an Abortion Crisis in New Zealand, 1921-36
Elizabeth Todd	University of Sydney	Mesmeric Anaesthesia: an infirmary in London and a lone ranger in Australia
Kim Hajek	University of Queensland	The shadow of magnétisme: marking hypnotism's scientific boundaries in fin-de-siecle France
Marianna Stylianou	Monash University	'It is one thing for Chairman Mao... quite another for us': health education during the Cold War era
Courtney Harper	University of Auckland	'No laughing matter': the problem of fat middle-aged men in post-war New Zealand dietary advice
Ann Hardy	University of Newcastle	Official Lunacy Policy and Frontier reality in Colonial NSW: Who was admitted to the Newcastle Asylum for Imbeciles
Alice Nicholls	University of Manchester, UK	Intensive Care in Australia's Northern Territory: medicine's frontier, at the frontier / 'Show & Tell': A mini-patient for children
Deborah Jowitt	University of Auckland	'A deadly threat to our very future as a nation': the impact of AIDS on the development of Hepatitis B policy in New Zealand in the 1980s
Vivek Neelakantan	University of Sydney	Visions of Health in Twentieth Century Indonesia

2011 conference: Public Health, Private Healers, Brisbane, Qld
Student's name	University	Conference paper title
Avishek Ray	Trent University, Canada	Client's Perspective in Mental Health: A View from India
Clare Parker	University of Adelaide	Thalidomide, foetal deformities and the legal abortion debate
Kim Hajek	University of Queensland	The tension between scientific and therapeutic aspirations in the Nancy-Salpêtrière disputes over hypnotism
Nicholas Taewa	University of Auckland	'Magic Twigs', Boiling Kerosene, and Biochemical Injections: alternative medicine in interwar New Zealand - continuity or decline?
Nils Hansson	Lund University, Sweden	Foreign Physicians in the Third Reich
Pat Seery	Murdoch University	Almost famous - Doctor David Field Rennie
Courtney Harper	University of Auckland	World Health Day 1971: global, national and local campaigns to raise public awareness about diabetes
Kate Scardifield	University of Sydney	Uncanny Bodies: the spectacle of early modern dissection and its implications of visioning the body
Natasha Sarkar	National University of Singapore	From fumes and incense to rare herbs and serpent venoms: when local knowledge challenges colonial medicine
Harry Yi-Jui Wu	Oxford University, UK	The Emergence of International Psychiatric Epidemiology

2013 conference: Antipodean Health: People, Places, Perceptions, Darwin, NT
Student's name	University	Conference paper title
Veronika Neuzilova	Griffith University	The Oil of the Dugong: Towards a Transnational History of an Indigenous Medicine

2015 conference: Missions, Methods and Management, Sydney, NSW
Student's name	University	Conference paper title
Caitlin Mahar	University of Melbourne	The Good Death: the development of medical management of the dying in nineteenth-century Britain
Irene Rogers	Central Queensland University	The Meaning of the Crosses: an object biography of a newspaper clipping collected by an Australian nursing sister in France during World War I
Kate Young	Monash University	Endometriosis: modern day reflections of medicine's historical construction of women and their bodies

Eden Tariq Smith	University of Melbourne	Distinguishing Between Mental Imagery and Hallucinations: historical context
Ella Arbury	University of Auckland	The mission for health: private housing in New Zealand 1918-1934
Maurits Meerwijk	University of Hong Kong	Fever city: dengue in colonial Hong Kong
Maëlle Duchemin-Pelletier	University of Glasgow, UK	The Management of Stillbirth in the United Kingdom
Susan Gardiner	University of Glasgow, UK	The management of infection: the Glasgow Royal Infirmary and the anti-infection sub-committee
Julia Wells	Victoria University of Wellington	'A Physician To The Sultan': the East African environment In the writings of a New Zealand doctor
Alexia Moncrieff	University of Adelaide	Managing venereal disease in the Australian Imperial Force during the First World War
Markus Wahl	University of Kent, UK	'Women are the problem': stigmatisation and sexually transmitted infections in post-war East Germany.

2017 conference: Health, Medicine and Society: Challenge and Change, Melbourne, Victoria

Student's name	University	Conference paper title
Lea Doughty	University of Otago	Right to Refuse: Compulsory Vaccination in the New Zealand Armed Forces during World War I (1914-1918)
Shirley Strachan	Federation University	The impact of late twentieth century health regulation in Victoria and the long return home for the legacy of Thomas Ambrose Bowen (1916-1982), lay osteopath.
Ella Stewart-Peters	Flinders University	The 'Vaccine Cult': Conspiracy Theories in the Nineteenth-Century Vaccination Debate
Mark Neuendorf	University of Adelaide	Emotions, Print Culture, and the Makings of British Psychiatry
Emily Poore	University of Queensland	Merciful Madonnas and Syphilitic Soldiers: Iconographic strategies of Early French-Disease Woodcuts
Ella Arbury	University of Auckland	The challenge to provide healthier homes: State and transit housing in Auckland, 1935-1949
Fallon Mody	University of Melbourne	Professional lives, interrupted: 'Alien' doctors in Australia, 1930-1980
Rebecca Le Get	La Trobe University	Agricultural work as therapy: The medicalised environment of the Greenvale sanatorium farm (1912-1918)

Patrick Walsh	University of Queensland	From internal secretions to Hormone Replacement Therapy: How twentieth century medicine captures the 'Vital Principle'
Shayne Brown	University of Sydney	Women orthoptists in Australian aviation medicine, 1939-1945
Yi Ci Lo	University of California	Fleshing out Weisheng: A dialogue between the Shanghai Municipal Health Bureau and Meat Merchants
Georgina Rychner	Monash University	'I believe her to be a maniac': Public Identification of Insanity in fin de siècle Victoria

2019 conference: Beyond Borders. Health and Medicine in Historical Context, Auckland, New Zealand

Student's name	Institution	Conference paper title
Averyl Gaylor	La Trobe University	Do Slum Children Distinguish Light from Dark? Dance, Hygiene and Housing Reform in 1930s Melbourne
Robyn Dunlop	Newcastle University	'If you don't listen, you don't hear it': Oral Histories and Accounts of Community Psychiatry from Newcastle, Australia, 1960s-1980s
Haiying Hou	University of Auckland	Women's Sexual Health as Seen in Yoshioka Yayoi's Writings in the early 20th Century in Japan
Scott Pilkington	University of Auckland	Brave Hearts : How New Zealand cardiac medicine history is being communicated in a museum setting
Branka Bogdan	Monash University	"We had everything then": Remembering Yugoslav women's experiences of reproductive regulation
Sylvia Valentine	Dundee University	Opposition to Compulsory Smallpox Vaccination - The Scottish Anti-Vaccination League 1896 – 1919
Georgia McWhinney	Macquarie University	Under the Sun: Light Therapy, Sunburn, and the Pathologisation of Race in the First World War
Tess Mazey-Richardson	University of Auckland	Socio-Cultural Responses to Youth Suicide in Aotearoa, 1978-2000